Boyle-Donahue

In St. John's Church at Millers Falls Monday morning, August 26, took place the wedding of Miss Margaret Mary Donahue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Donahue of Northfield Farms and John Joseph Boyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Boyle, of Lincoln, N. H. Rev. Henry McCormick, the pastor, officiated in a double ring ceremony.

Miss Harriet Boyle, of Lincoln, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Irene Cavanaugh, of Westfield, and Miss Anne Rowley, of North Adams, both former classmates of the bride at the College of Our Lady of Elms.

The bride, who was escorted by her father, wore a period style gown of white brocaded taffeta with court train and had a short tulle veil.

A reception at the Wetherhead farm in Millers Falls followed the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Northfield High School and our Lady of the Elms College in Chicopee. She has been a teacher at the Lincoln High School. Boyle is a graduate of Lincoln High School and is a veteran of World War II, having served three years in the European theater.

After a wedding trip to New York the couple will make their home in Lincoln.

At the state convention of the American Legion held at Lowell, Sidney H. Allen, Norton Field and Ray

Major C. Houghton

Major C. Houghton, of the firm of Simonds and Houghton, and president of the Vermont Peoples National Bank at Brattleboro, died after a brief illness early Monday morning, August 26. He was a native of South Vernon and was born December 18, 1874, and maintained the old family farm as a summer residence although residing in Brattleboro. His home was a mecca for his many friends. He was married in 1898 to Ella B. Blodgett who survives.

He was prominent in the Masonic fraternity and attained the thirty-third degree. Interested and active in all good work and serving the community in which he lived, he will be mourned by his friends. He visited Northfield frequently. Funeral services were held Thursday in the Unitarian Church of which he was a member with Rev. Ellis E. Jones officiating and burial was in the Tyler Cemetery in South Vernon with Masonic services. Many from this town were at the interment.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Frederickson last week were Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Baldwin, of Montpelier, Vt. Mr. Baldwin is the efficient chief of police of that city.

Mrs. Gertrude Beattys, of Westfield, N. J., gave a most delightful interpretation of the character delineations of Harriet Beecher Stowe in the parlors of the Northfield Hotel Tuesday evening. A large audience thoroughly enjoyed the various sketches, some in costume.

mond C. Miller were in attendance as delegates from Haven H. Spencer Post of this town.

Miss Campbell Passes

Information reached Northfield of the death of Miss Elizabeth Campbell, of Main Street, who passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Edgell, of Brooklyn, N. Y., where she had spent the winter, on Tuesday, August 27. She was a lifelong resident of this town, well known and had many friends who will mourn her loss. The body was brought here and funeral services were conducted Thursday morning in St. Patrick's Church with burial following in St. Mary's Cemetery.

The Northfield Hotel has been entertaining a large number of guests during the summer and is well filled now. Frequently the dining room has had two sittings to accommodate the large number of guests.

Miss Alice M. Pedley, of Elmhurst, N. Y., who has been a regular visitor at her home on the Ridge, was missed this season as she still remains at the hospital for treatment of her fractured leg, suffered some time ago.

The tax rate for Northfield this year although $3 higher than last is still below the average tax rate throughout the state which is $40. The lowest rate in the state is Goshen's $14.50 and the highest is Hampden's of $54.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Newton and Mrs. Clarence Griggs, of Winchester Road, are enjoying a vacation by motor visiting relatives and friends in New York state.
